CHINA (MAINLAND)

“朝阳群众发来贺电”

Separation or No separation, that's a question

In the traditional sense,

In the countryside, the younger generation tends to live with the older family members, while in the cities, the opposite is true

But, with the development of economy and urbanization, things change.....

JAPAN

Super Aging Society

Home Sharing with the elderly and young generations

college students

live together

Matching!

Provide rooms
with a low rent

the elderly lives
in a nearby university

JAPAN

Home Sharing with the elderly and young generations

Benefits for the frailty of elderly people

- Maintain cognitive ability through conversation
- Cooking and eating together
- Do not feel isolation
- Young people help heavy activities
(Manual labor, how to use a computer, etc)

HONG KONG

one in five people in the city is elderly

Governmental Organization:

- Social Welfare Department

Non-Governmental Departments:

- Hong Kong Association on Gerontology

Provide elderly community Centre

District Elderly Community Centre

- District Elderly Community Centre (DECC) is a type of community support services at district level to enable elderly persons to remain in the community and to lead a healthy, respectful and dignified life. DECCs also collaborate with other service units in the district and cooperate to build a caring community with better use of community resources.

Additional information of DECCs can be downloaded here.
